  - Member Federations
  - Associate Members
  - Co-operating Members
  - Provisional Members
  - Honorary Members
- 1.3.2. Membership is available to one National Casting Sport Federation or Association per country that is controlling the Casting Sport in that specific country. If a National Organisation does not practise during three years one or more disciplines, it can be replaced by another National Organisation which exercises an activity in this/these discipline(s). The replacement can be made over decision of the General Assembly or over proposal of the ICSF Executive board.
- 1.3.3. Associate Members may be individuals, institutions or companies wishing to contribute substantially to ICSF's activity in promoting International Casting Sport. They may attend the General Assembly meetings and may participate in the meeting, but have no vote.
- 1.3.4. Co-operating members may be recognised national organisation which practise casting sport and co-operate closely with ICSF in casting sport activities, but its country is represented by other national federation. They may attend the General Assembly meetings, but have no vote.
- 1.3.5. The ICSF Board in a move to grow Casting internationally has agreed to accept new ICSF Casting member federations on a provisional basis. Provisional members do not pay admittance or membership. The membership is on provisional basis and does not constitute any obligations or rights, in particular does it not award a voting right at Congress to a provisional member.
After a term of two years the membership will be subject to a review by ICSF's Board".
- 1.3.6. Honorary Members can be natural persons or juridical persons that meritorious have contributed to the casting sport.
They may attend the General Assembly meetings and may participate in the meeting, but have no vote.
- 1.3.7. Members of the Federation shall work for standardization of Rules, methods of casting, scoring and judging of all events and the promotion of the casting sport.

1.3.8. The members must accept and conform to the Rules and regulations of the International Casting Sport Federation.

1.3.9. Tournament Casting Sport transcends all political, ideological and cultural barriers and will therefore not acknowledge or accept any form of discrimination in our sport against its members and/or individuals.
