

Conditions for ICSF Election Congress and Candidates

General Conditions for Candidates to the ICSF Board:

The election to the ICSF Board requires active involvement and significant contributions to the development of casting and flycasting activities. Candidates must not hold a passive position within the Board. The candidate should meet the following criteria:

1. Active Participation in Casting and Flycasting Activities:

Candidates must hail from a national federation actively engaged in casting and flycasting activities, including participation in international competitions, efforts in youth development, and organization of domestic and international casting events.

2. Demonstrated Expertise in Casting (Flycasting) on the National Level:

Candidates should possess sufficient experience and expertise in casting or flycasting at the national level, demonstrating their understanding of technical aspects and competitive standards.

3. Familiarity with ICSF's Organizational Structure and International Position:

Candidates must have a comprehensive understanding of the organizational structure of the ICSF, its current activities, and its position within the global sports community, including associations like Sportaccord, IWGA, AIMS, CIPS, and WADA.

4. Language Proficiency:

Candidates are encouraged to have proficiency in both spoken and written English and German, although it is acceptable for at least one language to be highly proficient with a good comprehension of the second language. Proficiency in both languages is advantageous as English and German serve as the official languages of the ICSF. Effective communication in both languages facilitates better engagement with the international community within the federation.

5. Division of Activities Among ICSF Board Members:

The ICSF Board consists of 6-7 members, including the Treasurer. The division of activities among the board members is as follows:

- ICSF President
- ICSF General Secretary General
- 1st Vice-president of ICSF
- 2nd Vice-president of ICSF
- Board member
- Board member
- Treasure
